His Christmas Message.

THROUGH WRITER No. 1

" My loved Children, although My Messenger must go to be made ready for you some while before the Time of Love you call 'Christmas,' I desire that it shall not go without some word from Me, that shall help you to realize how My love enters all your thoughts and loving preparations for that time; yet never have you prepared for My Time of Remembrance before with such longing expectancy that The Father's Word shall be fulfilled, and My Light made manifest to all My weary Children.

The Times are full of throbbing hope, and I walk with you the path of patience, watching for The Dawn!

In these weeks before the day, I ask you to send your thoughts out to all My suffering people. You are used to greeting each other with words of happiness—My Children—use the Prayer for Peace! My Earth is in deep need of that Peace of GOD which indeed seems still past man's understanding. But I pray you fill your thoughts with prayer more than with rejoicing this Christmas-time, for pain and suffering and distress on all sides call to GOD from the darkness of misunderstanding and misdeeds, created through ignorance and wrong thinking about Him.

Pray with all your earnestness and faith that Christmas time, when it is here, may cast around the Earth a girdle of peaceful power to stay the tide of war, and bring into all minds the deep meaning of the Brotherhood of Man, that sacred tie of love I came to Earth to live and die for, and to teach. I call to you to watch and pray with Me through the last dark hour of night. Children! Pray! Pray GOD for the Dawn! Your sufferings rend My heart while I wait for you to come yet nearer to Him, in turning, and repentance, in faith, and trust, and love!

May GOD'S blessing help you to draw close to him in heartfelt prayer for peace.

Take Heart.

THROUGH WRITER No. 6

Children of the Light. I would speak unto you of the fuller knowledge, and the clearer understanding, which is coming towards you gradually. Unfold as the flower of Love gives you power to regain that which is your own at birth.

Children of this generation, it is yours to fulfil prophecy, the spoken Word of long ago must be lived to-day, it is your mission to shine as Light-bearers to those who are still in darkness.

MY MESSENGER

Wishing and hoping that you will closely follow
in the footsteps of your worthy Father. I will be at your side.
